

MNR announces grants - HCSA gets $2800

An announcement from the Ministry of Natural Resources that it will provide only $2800 for trail building and maintenance this year for the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association has left officials of that organisation bewildered and upset. The amount represents 17% of the $13,000 grant the association received last year and is far below the 40% figure the association had been told to expect.

Tom Prentice, president of the HCSA said "The announcement has taken the wind out of the organisation's sails." He said he had been called to the local Ministry office to be told the news on Monday.

"There was no explanation of how this amount was arrived at. All I was told that there would be no change to the amount allotted," Prentice pointed out that there appeared to be no reasoning behind the way the grants were handed out. "Some clubs and organisations received 35% of last year's grant while others were below our figure

The association had been shocked late last year when the ministry suddenly announced it was withdrawing all trail funding. The minister, Alan Pope, said the grants had been made as "seed" money and suggested now that the organisations were operating, they should become self-sustaining.

Following a howl of protest from snowmobilers in all corners of the province, the ministry agreed that the funding cut was too sudden and agreed to offer some assistance this year. No grants would be available next season. It was generally felt that the funding would be close to 40% of last year's grant, an amount the HCSA could live with, according to Prentice.

Hopes were buoyed further in December when reports, linked to high MNR officials, stated that all organisations would receive 100% of last year's grants. This latest announcement quickly deflated that euphoria.

"We are just going to have to rely on memberships more than ever to get us through the year," Prentice commented. He said the HCSA drive for new members had been well received and the association had passed the 50% mark on its target number. However, with $3,200 knocked out of its budget, the organisation had established its budget with the expectation of receiving the 40% grant, the group would either have to sell more memberships or cut back.

Prentice noted that the association executive had not met since the announcement was made Monday so no plans had been formulated on how the group would cope with the decrease in funding. "For the moment we're just carrying on," he stated.

"Last year we had 800 members," Prentice notes. "Presuming each member has one sled, the government receives over $8000 in licence fees (800 x $10) from our membership alone. The $2800 grant is pretty small considering what our members pay to the government."

In trail activities, Prentice reports that while there has been a great deal of snowmobiling activity during the Christmas holidays, many of the trails are not fully open as the ponds have yet to freeze solidly. He said he mild spell and rain have added to the wet conditions, particularly where snow has insulated the water from the cold temperatures.

Prentice said that parties of volunteers may be required to tramp the snow over the pond areas to harden those sections of the trail enough for the grooming Bombis to pass over.

Man dies in house fire

A fire shortly after midnight January 1, is believed to have taken the life of a Tory Hill man.

Police believe that Gordon Dale Gill, 48, died when his residence at the intersection of Highway 503 and Concession 10 Monmouth Township, was destroyed by fire. The remains have been taken to the forensic laboratory in Toronto for positive identification.

The fire was noticed at 1:30 a.m. by a passing motorist who notified the Monmouth Fire Department.

The home was a one room, frame structure which was completely gutted by the blaze. Only three walls remained standing.

Gill was believed to have been the only resident of the home. The man was last seen alive four o'clock the preceding afternoon.

The coroner attending the scene was Dr. Good of Haliburton. Investigation by Ontario Provincial Police is being carried out by Constable Barry Connelly.

More cars being towed away from rural roads

A number of visitors to Haliburton County had a rude shock when they went looking for their cars after visiting a cottage or spending some time skiing in area forests.

Following several warnings issued just before Christmas, the police are still receiving complaints about vehicles improperly parked on rural roads in the county. As a result the cars are being towed away.

Such was the case this past week when 55 cars were either removed by towing or by their owners at the police's request.

Most of the complaints about the improperly parked cars came from snow plough operators who experienced difficulty in doing their job with the vehicles parked on the roadway.

In a number of cases the parked cars also presented a hazard to traffic passing by the location. In most cases an effort was made to contact the owners, but when that proved fruitless, the cars were simply towed away.

Authorities report that the most common excuse offered by the drivers was that since there were no signs prohibiting parking, they felt there was nothing wrong in leaving their vehicles at the side of the road.

According to the police, unless there is an unobstructed view for 125 metres in each direction and the parked car will not interfere with snow plowing operations, it is not permissible to leave a car parked along the edge of a rural road. Even when these provisions are met, the driver must ensure the vehicle is not left in a manner so as to be a hazard to other road users.

The police have indicated they will continue to enforce this regulation, removing vehicles where necessary.

Minden drivers experienced all the extremes the weatherman would throw at them this week. Mild conditions Monday quickly filled area streets with puddles. Later in the day temperatures dropped leaving icy conditions in its wake. Blowing snow followed the freeze-up as winter returned with a bite.

Liberal candidates will meet public

Victoria-Haliburton Liberals will have an opportunity to meet the five candidates for the Ontario Liberal Party leadership next Tuesday.

A meeting, organized by MPP John Eakins, will give the five an opportunity to address the audience and then answer questions from the floor.

The meeting will be held at the Victoria Park Armoury in Lindsay.

"The policy decisions made by the Ontario Liberal Party will affect future legislation in Ontario for years to come," Eakins commented this week.

"For this reason I think this meeting should be of interest to all people in the riding, not just members of the Liberal Party."

The candidates include

David Peterson, MPP for London Centre; James Breithaupt, MPP for Kitchener; John Sweeney, MPP for Kitchener-Wilmot; Sheila Copps, MPP for Hamilton Centre; and Richard Thomas, a Liberal candidate in the last provincial election, from Parry Sound.

The meeting is to begin at 8 p.m. A short Liberal Party gathering at 7:30 p.m. will select the leadership convention delegates. The convention will be held in mid February.

Services discussed at Guilford workshop

On Friday, December 4 a successful workshop was held in the West Guilford Community Centre and attended by 70 people living in the Maple Lake, Kennisis Lake, West Guilford, Eagle Lake and Haliburton Lake areas.

Mrs. Doris McCann, Chairman of Haliburton County Home Support

Services introduced the guests and outlined the Meals on Wheels and also the Wheels to Meals programmes. She explained the procedures, sources of the meals, costs, and benefits. She called on conveners in the Minden, Haliburton, Carnarvon and GILD (Gelert, Ingoldsby, Lochlin, Donald) areas to report on the programme in their area.

Miss Leslie Orpana, Nutritionist, for Haliburton County, spoke on the importance of following Canada's food rules. By questioning us on our food habits, she demonstrated that only a few in the audience were obeying these rules. She stressed the importance of including such carbohydrates as potatoes, bread and cereals in our diets. Sugars and fats were the foods to be avoided. Her talk was supplemented with a film.

Mrs. Kathy Pittaway, Public Health Nurse spoke of her role in our community and of her availability to any community need.

Mrs. Ann McNaul, V.O.N. also spoke of how she served in the community. Those in need of her services must be referred to her through the doctor. She is also in charge of the homemaker service in our area. This too, is available only after recommendation by your doctor.

A nutritious and tasty dinner of beef stew, tea biscuits and cake was served upstairs.

After dinner, Mrs. Marie Wallace showed a film "Reaching Out" which depicted various ways in which volunteers could more efficiently help those who needed "a helping hand".

"Vials of Life" were given out to those who desired them. These small glass vials contain information such as: insurance number, name of family doctor, health status, medication taken, etc. It is placed under the top shelf of your refrigerator. The "Vial of Life" decal is placed on the refrigerator door to let emergency personnel know you are a participant in the programme.

Ivan Hunter, vice chairman, thanked the speakers and those responsible for the work involved. He encouraged everyone to be observant as to the needs in the community and to pass on to friends and neighbours information about the many services available.

This workshop was sponsored by the Haliburton County Home Support Services and funded by "Help the Aged" organization.

Last accident causes $5000 damage

A two car accident on Highway 648 in Monmouth Township was the last and 428th mishap investigated by Ontario Provincial Police, Minden, in 1981. The accident resulted in $5000 to the vehicles involved.

According to the police, a charge of making an improper turn has been laid against Evelyn Johnson, 65, of Monmouth Township after the vehicle she was driving collided with another being driven by Timothy K. Griffin, 32, of Toronto.

The accident was investigated by Constable Mike Smith.

The 428 accidents last year compares with a total of 446 in 1980.

New Year first
The first accident of 1982 reported to police occurred January 1, on Highway 519 just north of Haliburton village.

Richard R. Biagi of Dysart Township, lost control of his van on the slush covered roadway. His vehicle struck another heading in the opposite direction. It was being driven by Charles Herron, 64, of Mountain Street in Haliburton. The collision resulted in $3000 damage.

Drivers and passengers in both vehicles suffered minor injuries in the mishap.

The investigating officer was Constable Jim Solway.

Adding to the confusion

The confusion surrounding provincial funding for snowmobile and cross-country ski trails was increased this week when MNR officials announced that the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association would receive $2800 this season. The amount represents 17% of the $13,000 the association received last season.

The reason for the confusion and bewilderment can be traced to a number of sources. First, the latest announcement is one in a series from MNR which first saw all funding withdrawn, then promises of a partial reinstatement of the assistance, and finally the paltry amount offered.

Further confusion can be attributed to the method of doling out the grants. There appears, at this point, to be neither rhyme nor reason to the grant distribution. Some organisations received close to the 40% they expected, others were all but cut off. As noted, the HCSA fell somewhere in between at 17%. Presumably the ministry has some reasoning for what appears to be a haphazard way of distributing the funds. We know a lot of snowmobile enthusiasts who would like to know what criteria were used.

Finally, since the HCSA was led to believe by MNR officials, that it would receive 40% of last year's grant, it built its budget around that figure. The difference between 40% and 17% is $3200, a lot of money to compensate for at this late date in the season.

The action of the ministry leaves a lot to be desired. It also leaves many questions unanswered, questions which all Ontario snowmobile enthusiasts deserve to have answered.

In at least one respect, it might be good that the MNR will drop all assistance by next season. After the performance snowmobilers witnessed this year, there is little likelihood that a sense of co-operation and trust could be re-established between the two bodies.

Christmas tree at the bridge

A blow to the pocketbook

- by Bill Scott, M.P. -

Federal finance minister Allan MacEachen has begun a massive retreat from the budget he tabled in the House of Commons on November 12, and he has promised to announce more changes when the House re-convenes on January 25.

MacEachen said that he is responding to the tens of thousands of letters he has received from irate citizens all across the country who have protested that the budget measures punish the poor and the middle income Canadians while it is supposedly designed to do just the opposite.

This marks the first time that a government has been forced to make such sweeping changes to a budget, even before it has had a chance to table legislation dealing with any of the budget proposals.

The main reason for the government's change of heart is becoming clear, now that tax experts and accountants have had an opportunity to study and analyze the budget.

What we find is that this is not so much a budget as it is a tax grab, accomplished through a massive overhaul of our tax laws. There are no fewer than 165 amendments to the Income Tax Act in this so-called budget, and yet it does not contain even one measure to stimulate the economy or to deal with inflation or high interest rates.

Businesspeople, farmers, homeowners and others have been dealt a staggering blow from the effects of high interest rates over the past two years, and the budget hits all of them where they can stand it the least - in the pocketbook!

The federal government forced up interest rates in an effort to bring down inflation, and yet inflation is still climbing. We knew at least a year ago that high interest rates were not the answer to controlling inflation, and yet the finance minister ignored all the signs, and he refused to heed all advice on the subject.

As a result we have the highest rate of bankruptcies involving businesses, farms and individuals in our history. In addition, we have a national economy that is standing at virtually zero growth.

When the House convenes in January the government should admit that the document tabled on November 12 was really tax reform, masquerading as a budget.

We should have a new session of Parliament in January. This budget will then die on the order paper, allowing the government to save face.

With a fresh start, and with a proper budget in the traditional sense of the word, Canadians might be able to face the present and the future with renewed confidence.

Who else could hunt seals by lying in the water pretending to be an ice floe? Or teach Eskimos to catch more seals, by leaving a freshly-killed seal pup by their breathing holes? None other than the polar bear, of course, the massive white bears of Canada's north.

With more polar bears occurring over a broader range of habitats than anywhere else, Canada is definitely the place to watch polar bears. But according to Dr. Ian Stirling, who has studied the bears for the Canadian Wildlife Service, watching polar bears is often quite boring. 80% of a bear's search for food is "still hunting", with the bears staying motionless for long periods in wait for ringed seals, their favourite prey. But when something happens, it can be spectacular.

Dr. Stirling reports a bear raising its paws over its head and smashing downwards like a sledgehammer to break the ice over a seal lair. Other reports include a bear throwing blocks of ice at walrus to maim them before attacking.

Polar bears are estimated to harvest 50,000 seals each year in the Canadian arctic. To balance the odds, the seals have developed several remarkable adaptations.

A seal regularly uses six to eight different breathing holes, to keep the bears guessing where they might appear next. A seal sleeps for only a few seconds at a time when on ice, constantly lifting its head to check for predatory bears. Canadian seals won't even defecate on the ice near their holes, since the scent attracts bears. This is in contrast to their southern counterparts in Antarctica, where such precautions are unnecessary.

Polar bears are not endangered, even though they are not common. The future development of oil and minerals in the Arctic poses special threats for these specialized predators, however, and their future remains uncertain. Recent studies have shown that polar bears are very sensitive to spilled oil, which they lick from their coats.

Surely the fate of these magnificent mammals warrants a long hard look at any development plans for the Canadian Arctic.

Snowmobilers being shafted says local enthusiast

The Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources announced this week that the grant to the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association for this season will be $2800, approximately 17% of the amount received last year.

The announcement follows one last year that the funding was being terminated altogether. When snowmobile representatives across the province objected to the sudden move, the government reconsidered the move and indicated partial funding would be made available. Some snowmobile representatives felt the reduced funding would amount to 40 to 50% of last year's allotment.

The most recent announcement from MNR has angered a number of snowmobilers, including Larry McKnight. As well as being a snowmobile dealer and avid participant in the sport, he also is a member of the executive of HCSA. The following are his comments on the new funding arrangements announced by the provincial government.

In 1979 the H.C.S.A. received approximately $17,000.00 for trails. Then along came the energy crunch and funding was cut back and were are informed we have to share funding with cross-country skiers since they do not burn gas or pollute the environment. Our funding was cut back to $13,000.00. The funding remained at $13,000.00 yearly until this year.

This year we are going to be allocated 17% of last year or approximately $2,800.00 Big Deal!

There are 100,000 machines registered annually netting the government a cool million. The money is collected by the department of Transport, put in the General Fund then credited to the Ministry of Natural Resources. Now somewhere the MNR has used or lost the money, probably paid out in big wages to the bureaucrats which obviously gives nothing in return.

Now let us examine the "registration" not a "licence fee." We dealers are informed it is for sales tax verification the same as a boat, yet you can register a boat free and only need to register with the government at the time of sale.

The irony is that a boat runs down the lake during the summer but a snowmobiler pays $10 yearly for the same privilege in the winter.

The snowmobiler is a very important part of the economy. He or she donated 7% of the purchase price to the government, then a $10 registration fee and like other gas consumers, the biggest portion of the sales price goes to the provincial and federal governments. They also support an industry which provides employment and keeps dollars flowing. All that the snowmobiler has asked for is simply a good trail network in return.

Another aspect to consider is tourism. It also is a billion dollar industry and is tied up with snowmobiles. The government makes a feeble attempt to promote a winter trade competing with the lure of the sunny south and dollar drain out of Ontario. How can you promote the sport without trails, especially when snowmobilers provide the financing for the government?

The answer seems easy but it must not be since our overpaid bureaucrats have missed it. I guess they would sooner give out a contract to a high-paid advertising firm promoting winter tourism.

Now any businessman knows you have to provide a product or service to receive money. The government promotes trails but doesn't want to provide money for the product.

This obviously is the difference between a bureaucrat and a businessman. The businessman provides a product or goes

$4000 damage

A two car accident on Highway 35 just south of Carnarvon has resulted in $4000 damage and one driver being charged with making an unsafe turn. The vehicles were being driven by Teddy Wayne Pipe, 35, of Minden and Gordon Kuhlmann, 21, of Hamilton. Both cars were travelling in the same direction when the collision occurred.

Pipe has been charged by OPP.

The incident was investigated by Constable Jim Solway.

Correction

In an accident report appearing on the front page of last week's newspaper, the names of the principles were inadvertently switched. Lyle Franklin Sawyer was the driver of a truck and Melvin Erle Blanchard of Mississauga was the pedestrian who was struck and suffered a broken leg.

Win and loss for Huskies both by a single point

Only a single goal separated the Huskies from their opposition this past weekend. On one occasion the Haliburton team found itself on the winning side of that combination, while in the other instance they were on the down side.

The Huskies opened the weekend with a Saturday night game at home against Bracebridge where they defeated the visitors by a 8-7 margin. On the road Sunday, the Huskies went down to a 4-3 defeat at the hands of the Parry Sound Shamrocks.

The Saturday win was significant in that it brought the Haliburton team within two points of the league leading Bracebridge Bears, the team they defeated. At the end of the game, the Huskies had 29 points in league action, while the Bears had 31. That situation has since changed, with Bracebridge playing a number of extra games to make up for a late start on the season. (The statistics from those games are unavailable.)

It was a come from behind win for the Huskies in Bracebridge. The Bears opened the scoring in the first period with two goals. The Huskies countered with a single from Scott Arbuthnot. The assist went to Darrin MacInnes.

The teams evened the scoring in the second period with Bracebridge scoring three to Haliburton's four goals. Marksmen for the Huskies included Ron Yake from Duff Mitchell; Dave Nicholls from Ron Yake; Tim Davies from Ron Yake; and Kevin Shapiera from Darrin MacInnes and Chris Hodgson.

The Bears once again took over the lead in the third period scoring two goals. However, in the final five minutes of the game the Huskies came back. Tim Davies scored from Ron Yake; Yake tied the score on a pass from Davies and Rob Abbs; and the winning goal was scored by Chris Hodgson with assists going to Darrin MacInnes and Kevin Shapiera.

The Huskies were hampered on Sunday when they travelled to Parry Sound with only two lines. Four players did not show up for the game, two because they were working. According to one observer, the team just ran out of steam as the game progressed. The loss was disappointing for team officials as the Huskies had played Parry Sound four times in the past and amassed seven points.

The Huskies scored a single goal in each of the periods. In the first it was Ron Yake from Dave Nicholls and Tim Davies; in the second Duff Mitchell scoring from Ed

Davis and Chris Hodgson; and finally Dave Nicholls on a pass from Tim Davies and Ron Yake.

This Friday the Huskies travel to Penetang for the away game of the weekend.

The team then moves back to the Minden arena for their second match of the season in that facility. They will meet Gravenhurst with the game time set for 7 p.m. Team officials were able to have the starting time of the game moved from 4:30, as was previously scheduled. It was felt that attendance was hurt in December when the Huskies last played in Minden. The game, which also started at 4:30, stretched into the supper hour. It is hoped that by having the 7 p.m. start more fans will be able to attend the game.

down the drain. The bureaucrat talks, makes a foolish attempt then robs the pot. The sad thing is the Canadian public allow this to happen daily.

So you snowmobilers are taking a "Royal Shafting." You can protest by writing your member of parliament, sending in petitions or else just sit back and be a typical Canadian and do nothing!

January

- Batteries were dead, pipes frozen and records broken as 1981 started. Frigid temperatures gripped the Haliburton Highlands and most of Ontario. The full impact of the cold weather would not be known until three or four months later when prized fruit trees failed to blossom, their tender branches killed by the -30 degree temperatures.

By Bob Stinson

Haliburton Highlands

We are off and running in a brand new year and business over the holiday season got most of us off to a good start. If you haven't got all your New Year's resolutions set in stone we thought it might be appropriate to offer a few suggestions at this time.

- Let's resolve to stop letting "George" do it. We all have a tendency to back off and let someone else do all the organizing and preparation particularly in areas in which we are not comfortable. The trouble is that eventually "George" gets tired, stops doing what he was doing, and, since none of us were giving him a hand, nobody is properly prepared to step in and take over. Better still if "George" has help he may not get so tired and may not stop doing what he is doing. Let's all help "George".

- Let's make an effort to "be aware". The world is moving at a hectic pace and values and ideals are changing every day. New laws and policies come into effect often before we noticed it was being discussed. When decisions are made that we feel may be off base it is far more difficult a task to alter that course after the fact than it would have been while the issue was under discussion. Let's keep an eye on what is being talked about, when it's being talked about.

- Let's provide some input. Once we are aware of the issues it is important to let those making the decisions know how we feel about them. The so called "silent majority" will never get their way because they are not telling anyone what their way is. One or two voices with strong arguments can sway decisions completely away from what is best, simply because they were the only ones heard. Let's all tell them what it is we want.

- Let's really all work together. Our County is blessed with a large number of clubs and organizations and nine municipalities each with their own sets of objectives. Seldom, if ever, can anyone of those say that what they are attempting to do has nothing to do with, nor could benefit from the participation of at least one other of the bodies in the community. So much more can be accomplished in a spirit of co-operation than affected by its success or failure. This industry is rapidly growing well beyond the traditional 2 month summer season. Many visitors are here to get away for a short time from the pressures and the problems of living in the metropolitan areas. We can be assured of their constant visits if we provide them with the relaxed atmosphere they are looking for. Let's keep our tourists happy.

- Let's not expect government to solve all our problems. It has been said that a government that can do this is one with enough power to take away all our freedoms also. Much of the bad legislation that we are presently faced with is there because the government was persuaded that this or that law would resolve an inequity that might have better been resolved through dealing with attitudes.

Best wishes to all of you in the New Year.

News from THE COUNTY TOWN

by Yvonne Guida

Dear Readers:

I would like to wish each and everyone of you a healthy, happy and prosperous New Year. Some of you may not know me, but I am sure you know my father, Walter Noice, who was born in Minden and has spent the major portion of his life here as did his father Edward before him.

I cannot hope to take Jeanne Sears' place. She has been a devoted contributor to the paper for several years, but I hope you will bear with me with patience and understanding. I promise to do the best job I can.

The beautiful new Minden Library is the proud recipient of a book based on the life of the late Conn Smythe, which was generously donated by lawyer Donald Finn.

The book is inscribed by Joe Primeau, one of the famous Kid-line hockey players, composed of Conacher, Primeau and Jackson who played for the Maple Leaf Hockey team under Conn Smythe. The flyleaf reads: I am pleased to sign this book on behalf of two veterans of the first World War, namely, the late Conn Smythe and Walter Noice of Minden, who served with distinction. This book is presented on their behalf to the Minden Public Library. Signed, Joe Primeau.

The famous Canadian Sculptor George Pratt, formerly of Minden, now residing in British Columbia, and busily engaged in sculpting a memorial to Terry Fox, has graciously consented to do a sculpture in stone from the Haliburton Highlands, for the new Art Centre in Minden. We will be fortunate indeed to have such a gift and are greatly indebted to this fine artist.

There will be a meeting of the Art Gallery Committee on Monday, January 11th, at 8 p.m.

At this time I would like to express my appreciation, on behalf of the Gallery committee, to all the Archie Stouffer students who contributed their art work and had such a lovely Christmas display at the gallery. We have some fine, potential artists here in Minden of which everyone should be proud.

The Minden Library is open daily from three to five (except Sunday) and on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings from 7:30 to 8:30.

Major and Mrs. Glynne Lewis spent a delightful Christmas with their respective mothers, Mrs. W. A. Bedlington and family and Mrs. R.D. Lewis in Oakville, Ont. They returned last Sunday.

Mr. Paul Yearwood, his wife and two children of Coppercliff, a suburb of Sudbury, visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Yearwood of Minden, over New Year, and his brother Roger from Calgary, Alberta also spent a delightful Christmas and New Year with their parents.

Bea and Frank Waters are convalescing at home after surgery at Toronto General Hospital and would like to thank their many friends for their expressions of good wishes over the past weeks, and hope to see everyone in the spring.

Mrs. Taylor Kernohan spent Christmas at Huntsville with Mr. and Mrs. James Graham and Mr. and Mrs. William Barkwell and their families. Visiting with Mrs. Kernohan over the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Kernohan of Whitby, Allan Kernohan, Rob Kernohan and Carol Ferguson of Oshawa, Mrs. Rachel Dennis and her son Elmer Pollard of Bowmanville, Ont.

Hi! So sorry that Jeanne Sears isn't writing for the paper anymore. She will be sorely missed every week. But I guess there comes a time when a door must close to open a window on another view.

I see some ice huts out already. Please take care on the ice, as some places aren't frozen deep enough as yet.

The children are back at school, so drivers watch out for school buses and children getting on and off, as sometimes little ones forget their rules when they are in a hurry.

Mrs. Lil Porter spent New Year and the weekend in Oshawa visiting her son Bill and family and daughter Norma and family.

Shelly Thompson from Bowmanville spent the New Year and weekend with Ken, Jeanne and Heather Bowron.

Bob and Barb White were down from Hanmer visiting in the area over the weekend.

The Cruickshanks, Oatman's and Lacey's from Shelburne area spent a few days in the area visiting.

I'd like to thank everyone for their kind thoughts and best wishes, while I was in Lindsay hospital. With special thanks to Dr. Lodenquai and nurses.

Flattery is something nice someone tells you about

Paul Northey was home from college in Lamoni, Iowa for the Christmas and New Year's holiday. Relieved to hear you made it back safely Paul.

Mrs. Lena Burton celebrated her eighty-fifth birthday on December 30th at a party with all her neighbours in the Sunrise Apartments, and later at a dinner party at the Schnitzel House with Jim, Helen and friends.

It is with regret that we announce the deaths of Mr. Ted Carpenter of Ingoldsby, Mrs. Annie Maughan of Lindsay and Mr. Gordon McCutcheon of Minden. Our heartfelt sympathy goes to all their relatives and friends.

Mrs. Shirley Hewitt spent Christmas at Markham with the Bob Dudman's.

May the Christmas spirit remain in your hearts throughout the year.

'Till next week then.

Preventing doors and trunk from freezing - wipe or spray the rubber gaskets with a heavy coating of vegetable oil. The oil will seal out water, but will not harm the gasket. This is especially good before having your car washed in the winter.

Bye for now. Take it easy. God bless till next time.

A lovely service in the chapel on Sunday night. Fred Parker read the lesson, taken from Luke, chapter two. He also read in prayer. Rev. Burgess spoke on the life of Simon, a real interesting message. Rev. Burgess comes to us each Sunday night, and always has an interesting text. We thank him, and look forward to his coming.

Monday morning was fun and fitness. Monday afternoon the ladies worked in the craft room. Monday night we watched two great movies - "Alaska, Great Land" and "Portrait of Burmuda". Both were really good.

Tuesday morning, Mr. Robert Wunker held a lovely service in our chapel here. He spoke on time. He read from Ecclesiastes, fourth chapter, where it says there is a time for everything. Mrs. Norma Barron played for us. Thank you both.

Tuesday afternoon, I didn't play Bingo, nor place any bets, but I helped fold seven hundred and fifty serviettes.

Tuesday night Fred Ballard came. He always comes through snow or rain, to entertain us for a while - always with a smile.

Wednesday, fun and fitness in the auditorium, where we spend a social hour and have a lot of fun. Wednesday night was games night again, when I played with a lady and two men.

Thursday afternoon the Hyland Crest kitchen staff put on a nice tea party, and they seemed to do it without a bit of fuss. We say a big "Thank you" to you, and all the best in 1982.

Sorry, our letter didn't reach the press, telling you of our Christmas here at the Crest. If we act nice, and keep real meek, perhaps they will print it for us next week.

To the Editor and Staff, and all they hold dear, a very happy and prosperous New Year.

Now, as we enter eighty-two, Our wish is, all the best to you.

That it will be a happy year, For you, and ones you hold most dear.

It's the little things in life that count - the things of everyday. Just the simple things that we can do - the kind words we can say. The little things like a friendly smile, for those who may be sad - the clasp of a hand to help make someone glad.

Until next time.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother, Violet Wallace, who passed away on January 10, 1979.

As time unfolds another year,
Memories keep you ever near.
Silent thoughts of times together,
Hold memories that will last forever.

Always remembered by daughters Margaret and Dorothy and families.

In loving memory of a dear wife, Violet Wallace, who passed away on January 10, 1979.

It is sad to walk the road alone,
Instead of side by side.
But to all there comes a moment

When the ways of life divide;
You gave me years of happiness,
Then came sorrow and tears,
But you left beautiful memories
I will treasure through the years.

Always loved and sadly missed by husband Norman Wallace.

METRIC SHOPPING IS HERE!

Canadian Government regulations require that food weighed in stores be sold in metric units only.

The retail cost of product has not changed due to metric conversion, so the cost per serving remains the same.

Some fruits and vegetables are still sold by unit, by quantity or by bunch but the price of items weighed in the store is now based on the price per kilogram.

One kilogram equals approximately 2.2 pounds.
